

For such a long time did the nature make Beljanica mountain and its wavy slopes, Resava river and its steep canyons, Resava cave and dozens of other springs and waterfalls, endless forests and meadows.

Overwhelmed with the fairytale-like nature, Serbian ruler despot Stefan Lazarevic decided to build his legacy, Manasija monastery, Resava school and to write the poem "Slovo ljubve" right here. Both nature and people were the creators of these surroundings. They did the best they could. They did it with a lot of inspiration and love. And today we can admire it.

ITINERARY:

Departure from the hotel at 08:00 AM. Accompanied by a local guide, we arrive in Cuprija from where we continue into the very heart of Resava. We visit Ravanica, a Serbian medieval monastery built between 1375 and 1377. The monastery was a spiritual, cultural, literary, and arts center of Medieval Serbia. We leave for the Resava cave, the best-known and the most visited cave in Serbia. The total length of all the cave's passages is 4,5 km, while the tourist passages are 800 meters long in total. Located in the Resava cave's close vicinity is the Lisine waterfall, one of the most beautiful waterfalls in Serbia. Together with the source of the Vrelo river, it is protected as a natural monument of outstanding significance. Lunch break. After lunch we continue to Manasija, one of the most significant monuments of medieval Serbian culture, built between 1407 and 1418. After visiting Manasija monastery, we return to Niš or Belgrade. We arrive in Nis/Belgrade in the evening. End of the program.
