

Lake Zavoj – a unique pearl of “Stara planina” (Balkan Mountains) National Park. It was formed in 1963, when a big landslide made a natural dam, which was later finished by building an artificial dam. In this process, the villages of Mala Lukanja, Velika Lukanja, and Zavoj disappeared forever. The stone village is located 17 km from Pirot at the upper part of the Visočica river, at a spot called Visok.

TOUR PLAN

Departure from Niš in front of the hotel at 07:30 a.m. We travel along a single carriageway road through the scenic Sićevo Gorge to Pirot, continuing to the stunning Lake Zavoj and our starting point in the village of Pakleštica. After preparing the equipment and finalizing all details, we set off on our kayaking adventure, paddling through the breathtaking 7 km-long meanders of Lake Zavoj. Upon reaching the bay of Gostuša, we embark on a 30-minute hike to the unique stone village—an extraordinary architectural and cultural-historical monument. Here, we enjoy a tasting of traditional homemade products in our host's house, followed by a lunch break.

After an optional sightseeing tour, we return along the same route. We pack up the equipment and head back to Niš, arriving in the evening. End of program.
