

Balkan Mountains – Winter Fairy Tale

In winter, Stara Planina Mountain becomes a land of silence, snow, and untouched nature. Vast slopes are covered in white, the air is crisp and clear, and the landscapes radiate calm and raw beauty. This tour is designed for those looking for a short escape from everyday life and a relaxed day in nature, without rush or excessive effort. The winter atmosphere, positive group energy, and a sense of freedom make this trip a truly special experience. Welcome to the winter fairytale of Stara Planina.

TOUR PLAN

Departure in front of the “Čair” Sports Hall in Niš (ticket office area) at 07:30 a.m. Drive via the highway to Pirot and further into the heart of Stara Planina. Passing through the picturesque villages of Stara, Rsovci, and Visočka Ržana, we arrive at the village of Rosomač, where the hike to Rosomački Peak, locally known as Kukla Peak, begins. The view from the top is truly unforgettable. On the way back, we visit Slavinjsko Grlo Gorge, a unique natural phenomenon where cascades of water flow from one stone basin into another. The journey continues to the weekend settlement of Vrelo, where we visit the extraordinary Jelovičko Spring, a rare and almost surreal natural attraction. After all activities, there will be a coffee break at the “Vrelo” café, hosted by our local friends. Return to Niš in the evening hours. End of program.
