Slovenia, a land of unspoiled nature and impressive mountain landscapes, is a true paradise for lovers of active holidays and adventure. Nestled between the Julian Alps and the Adriatic Sea, it offers a perfect blend of natural beauty and cultural gems that will enrich your journey.

This tour is designed to suit a variety of interests – from skiers eager to explore the slopes of Kranjska Gora and Monte Lussari, to those who enjoy winter walks and hiking through alpine peaks and valleys, with visits to waterfalls and lakes along the way.

The program is carefully balanced so that everyone can find their own rhythm and experience the Alps in their own way – whether through adrenaline-filled skiing, peaceful walks in nature, or discovering charming alpine villages and cultural attractions. Get ready for an unforgettable journey that will fill your heart with the beauty and atmosphere of the Alps in an idyllic winter setting!

SLOVENIA – Winter Magic of the Alps

ITINERARY:

DAY I: NIŠ – BELGRADE – KRANJSKA GORA – MARTULJEK WATERFALLS

Driving distance: 855 km / Walking route: 2 km / Hiking time: 2 h
Departure from Niš at midnight from a pre-arranged meeting point. The journey continues through Serbia (group meeting in Belgrade), Croatia, and Slovenia, with stops for rest and border formalities. Arrival in Kranjska Gora in the morning hours. Visit to Lake Jasna and a walk through Kranjska Gora. Transfer to the Martuljek Waterfalls area. An easy winter walk with impressive views of the Špik mountain massif and surrounding peaks – ideal for photography and enjoying the alpine atmosphere. For those who prefer not to join the walking tour, an optional visit to the Kranjska Gora ski resort is available. Lunch break. Accommodation in the afternoon. Dinner. Overnight stay.

DAY II: KRANJSKA GORA – ITALY (MONTE LUSSARI- TARVISO – LAGO DI FUSINE) – KRANJSKA GORA

Driving distance: 25 km / Walking route: 7 km / Hiking time: 2.30 h
After an early breakfast, we depart for Italy.

Option 1 – Skiing: By purchasing a Kranjska Gora ski pass, it is possible to ski at the Italian ski resort Monte Lussari (Tarvisio). Participants may cross into Italy with the group and spend the day skiing on scenic slopes leading toward the mountain village of Monte Lussari. Option 2 – Hiking / Walking: Transfer to Italy followed by a hiking tour to Monte Lussari, considered one of the most beautiful winter routes in the region. The trail is well-marked and moderately demanding, suitable for recreational hikers. Those who prefer not to hike can ascend and descend by cable car. Free time in the village for photography and enjoying panoramic alpine views. After the ascent, continuation to Tarvisio, with free time for lunch and a short walk.

In the afternoon, both groups continue to Lago di Fusine – a breathtaking emerald-green alpine lake with stunning views of Mount Mangart. Return to Kranjska Gora. Dinner. Overnight stay.

DAY III: KRANJSKA GORA (SKIING) OR VILLACH (AUSTRIA) – KRANJSKA GORA

Driving distance: 25 km

After breakfast, skiers enjoy a full day of skiing at the Kranjska Gora ski resort. For the rest of the group, an optional excursion to Villach is organized – a charming Austrian town known for its historic old town, baroque façades, and the warm atmosphere typical of the southern Alps. Located on the banks of the Drava River, Villach blends Austrian orderliness with a touch of Italian Mediterranean charm. Return to Kranjska Gora. Dinner. Overnight.

DAY IV: KRANJSKA GORA – BOHINJ – SAVICA WATERFALL – BLEĐ – BELGRADE – NIŠ

Driving distance: 930km / Walking route: 1km / Hiking time: 30min
Breakfast. Departure from Kranjska Gora toward Bohinj. Walk around Lake Bohinj, the largest and arguably the most beautiful lake in Slovenia. Continuation to the Savica Waterfall, one of Slovenia's most iconic natural landmarks. The journey concludes with a short stop at Bled and Lake Bled. Return trip to Serbia. Arrival in Belgrade (Niš) in the late evening hours. End of program.
