The natural beauty of Montenegro – its majestic mountains, rivers, canyons, lakes, forests, towns, and the Adriatic coast – makes it truly unique and exceptional. Despite its relatively small size, nature has "relentlessly" blessed it with stunning landscapes, making it appealing to all, especially to those who seek wild, untouched nature. This makes Montenegro a true hidden gem for adventurous travelers. Though it may seem easily accessible and possible to explore in just a few days, Montenegro hides trails that lead to real adventures – far from typical tourist routes.

This tour takes you straight into the heart of Durmitor National Park, on an exciting hiking adventure. We'll reach two impressive peaks: Minin Bogaz (2,387 m) – often compared to Ama Dablam peak for its shape, and Savin Kuk (2,313 m), a peak full of legends and royal trails. This three-day journey offers the perfect balance between challenge, breathtaking scenery, and pure mountaineering adventure. Whether you're a lover of high altitudes, a passionate photographer, or simply someone looking to escape the everyday routine – this journey has it all, and more.

Durmitor National Park – Minin Bogaz & Savin Kuk

TRAVEL ITINERARY

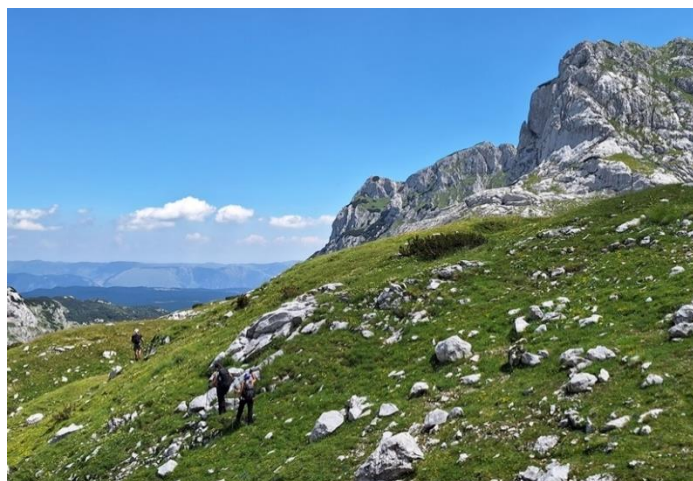

DAY I: NIŠ – NP KOPAONIK – JABUKA – NP DURMITOR – ŽABLJAK

Departure from the "Čair" hall in Niš (by the ticket office) at 14:00. Travel through Serbia and Montenegro with stops for rest and border formalities. Arrival in Žabljak, located at an altitude of 1450 m, in the heart of Durmitor National Park. Accommodation in pension-style apartments. Dinner. Overnight stay.

DAY II: NP DURMITOR – BLACK LAKE (CRNO JEZERO) – MININ BOGAZ PEAK 2387 M

After breakfast, we transfer to the Black Lake (Crno Jezero), where our hiking tour begins. The trail leads us along the picturesque Mlinski Stream, through dense coniferous forest, all the way to Indini Dolovi. From there, we continue via Lokvice and the Scorched Slabs (Sagorele ploče, 2,214 m) toward the final goal—the imposing summit of Minin Bogaz (2,387 m). This peak, also known as the "Ama Dablam of Durmitor," stands out with its slender silhouette and sharp, needle-like summit, reminiscent of the Alps. Its wild beauty and challenging terrain make it one of the most attractive ascents, especially in the winter months. The peak was named after a hunter named Mina, who used to hide out on this mountain. From the town of Žabljak, Minin Bogaz, together with Bobotov Kuk (2,523 m), creates a spectacular alpine landscape. The total trail length is approximately 17 km, with an elevation gain of about 1,100 meters. Transfer to accommodation. Dinner. Overnight stay.

DAY III: NP DURMITOR – MOTIČKI GAJ – SAVIN KUK 2313 MNV – ŽABLJAK – KOPAONIK – NIŠ

After breakfast, we transfer to Motički Gaj, where we begin our ascent to one of Durmitor's most famous peaks—Savin Kuk (2,313 m). Alongside Bobotov Kuk and Međed, it is one of the mountain's most recognizable summits. The trail to the top was built in the early 20th century so that King Nikola I of Montenegro could climb it. In addition to its historical significance, Savin Kuk also draws visitors because of the legend of Savina Voda (2,212 m), a spring believed to have healing properties. The ascent takes about 3 hours and is not technically demanding. Upon reaching the summit, we take in the views and enjoy a short break before returning along the same trail. Once back in Žabljak, we'll have lunch, pack our gear, and prepare for the journey back to Serbia. Arrival is expected in the late evening hours. End of program.
